

SINERFIN

The real estate business of the OH Group

The mission

SINERFIN SpA is the company that owns all the real estate assets in the Group: commercial buildings where the stores are located, office buildings and distribution centres and sites to be developed which have strategic importance for the development of the business.

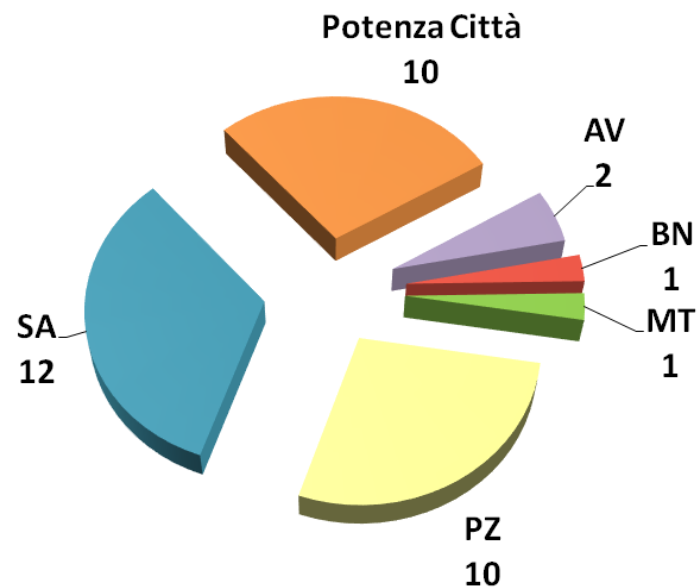

Consequently, the company provides leasing of commercial properties and real estate services to the other companies in the Group in the broadest sense, including “facility management” of buildings and for the use of logistical fully-equipped premises.
